Mr. Thomas J. O'Brien
Director
Defense Investigative Service
Washington, D. C. 20324

Dear Tom:

My apologies for not responding earlier to your invitation to visit the Defense Industrial Security Clearance Office at Columbus, Ohio, but my schedule has been a hectic one which included several trips out of the area. I would like to take you up on your invitation, and, if convenient, [redacted] and I will travel to Columbus on January 24, 1983, and visit LTC Eric Holt on January 25, 1983.

STAT

I am very pleased to have received your invitation and look forward to visiting DISCO and meeting with Colonel Holt.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Director of Security

When LTC Eric Holt and I visited you at the Central Intelligence Agency on September 28, 1982, we discussed the possibility of your making a trip to the Defense Industrial Security Clearance Office at Columbus, Ohio.

I would like to take this opportunity to formally extend an invitation to you and any other key members of your staff to visit DISCO at the earliest possible opportunity.

Please contact me when you know what your plans are and I will be happy to make the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,
